Subject: Revival of an application for patent abandoned unintentionally under 37 CFR 1.137(b)

Dear Sir/Madam:

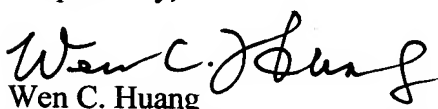

When visiting the USPTO PAIR-Direct website on March 4, 2007, the Applicant was shocked to realize that the above-identified patent application was abandoned due to failure to pay the issue fee. As a matter of fact, the Applicant has never received a notification from the Office to pay an issue fee for this patent.

My last written communication with the Examiner was on October 10, 2006 in response to the Office Action mailed on 09/26/2006 (which indicated that claims 1-31 were allowed, but other claims were either objected to or rejected). In that communication, I requested the Office to re-consider those claims rejected or objected to. As an inventor, I was most interested in getting this patent application approved as soon as possible. Since October 10, 2006, I have been anxiously waiting to hear further from the Office. I have never received an issue fee payment notice. Any delay or failure in paying the issue fee was unintentional.

I contacted the Examiner on March 6, 2007 by phone to obtain more information about the case. Mr. Kasenge kindly told me to file this petition and also told me that the total issue/publication fee is $1000. I have herein enclosed a check in the amount of $1,000 for the issue fee and publication fee and another check in the amount of $750 for the petition fee.

Your approval of my request for revival of this patent application shall be greatly appreciated.

Respectfully,

Wen C. Huang
